West End Presbyterian Church

New York City

An Appreciation

In view of the long and distinguished service of

Robert A. Speer

Secretary of the ^{as} Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church, United States of America, covering a period of forty-four years.

And in view of his approaching retirement from official service in the summer of nineteen hundred and thirty-seven.

The Session of West End Presbyterian Church in the City of New York for and in behalf of the members thereof has caused to be engrossed this sentiment of regard and affection in grateful recognition of Dr. Speer's unflagging zeal and unremitting labors to make the Lord Jesus Christ known and loved throughout the whole wide world. _____

It is the further wish of the Session to testify that our world vision has broadened, our desire to spread Christ's gospel has deepened and our souls have grown under Dr. Speer's frequent pulpit ministrations in this church. _____

With devout faith and prayer we commend to the Giver of every Good and Perfect Gift this Faithful Servant of God. _____

Authorized at the Monthly Meeting of Session February Seventeenth Nineteen Hundred and Thirty - Seven. _____
